- Availability of sophisticated Food Analysis Lab for testing agricultural products for export, as well as, for research.

Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Pune (India)

Bharati Vidyapeeth, the parent organization of the University, was established in May 1964 by Hon'ble Dr. Patangrao Kadam, renowned educationist and visionary with the motto Social Transformation through Dynamic Education. The University came into existence in April 1996, when a cluster of 12 institutions of Bharati Vidyapeeth were granted the Deemed to be a University status by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India on the recommendations of University Grants Commission, in recognition of the high level of their academic excellency.

Today, the University is one of the largest multi-disciplinary, multi-campus universities having 29 constituent institutions with sprawling campuses located in 8 campuses in Pune, Mumbai, Kolhapur, Solapur, Karad, Sangli and New Delhi. It is a matter of pride that during the last 19 years of its existence, the University has made tremendous progress and has demonstrated its excellence in research, teaching and outreach and cultural activities. The academic excellence of the University has been endorsed by various Statutory Councils and Accreditation Agencies.

The University offers under graduate, as well as, post graduate programmes in 12 faculties – Medical Sciences; Dentistry; Ayurved; Homoeopathy; Nursing; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Engineering and Technology; Management Studies; Law; Arts, Social Sciences and Commerce; Science and Interdisciplinary Studies. Keeping pace the twenty first century educational scenario, the University alongwith teaching gives equal priority to the socially relevant research in conventional as well as emerging areas. The University offers doctoral programmes in 77 subjects in the above mentioned faculties.

There are numerous indicators of quality and relevance of the University research. They include the significant outcomes in the form of research publications, patents, consultancy and research grants. Most important among them is the benefits which society and individuals derive from it.

The University has entered into collaborations with National as well as International academic institutions of repute for joint research programmes, and exchange of faculty and students. They include collaborations with: North Carolina A and T University, USA; University of Cologne, Germany; Depoul University, Chicago, USA; University of West Minister, UK; University of Reading, UK; University of Warsaw, Poland etc. In addition, the University has established more than 300 linkages with industries which provide opportunity to have hands on experience to the students.

The researches done by the faculty have culminated into the registration of 42 patents so far. Many faculty members have received research awards and other recognitions at International and National levels.

The students are provided with opportunities to acquaint themselves with the complex, multifaceted, multicultural, and increasingly interconnected world that we live in through participation in the events like international cultural festivals, sports meets and the like.

The University has a fairly large contingent of international students hailing from more than 47 countries. International Students' Cell is established by the University to look after the international students and help them to make their stay comfortable.

The University has developed in all of its Constituent Units a world-class infrastructure, particularly for facilitating cutting-edge research in emerging areas. The University subscribes to the digital databases, on-line International and National journals with a view to promote quality research. The ICT infrastructure of the University includes a data centre, high bandwidth internet connectivity, Wi-Fi and other subject specific softwares.

The University shall notify, on its websites (www.bvuniversity.edu.in or www.bharatividyapeethuniversity.net) the faculty wise and subject wise number of seats available for admissions to Ph.D. programmes.

The candidates, who have UGC/CSIR, JRF or AICTE/ Teacher Fellowship or ICMR, DST, DBT fellowship etc. will be exempted from appearing at the 'All India Entrance Test' for the Ph.D. admissions. A number seats will allocated to each subject over and above the seats declared by the University in that subject.

The candidates appearing for the final year of the post-graduate examination can also appear for the Entrance Test. However, he/she will have to submit the result of qualifying examination at the time of interview, failing which his claim for admission will get automatically cancelled.

The Ph.D. Entrance Test will consist of one theory paper based on the postgraduate level syllabus of the concerned subject. The candidate will also have to appear for an interview. Details of the syllabus of different subjects are available on university website.

- The weightage given for the written test and performance in the interview will be 80% and 20%, respectively.
- Candidate will have to score minimum 50% of aggregate marks (45% marks for SC/ST students category) to qualify for admission to a Ph.D. programme.
- A merit list of the candidates will be prepared based on their aggregate score at the written test and the viva- voce.
- The merit of the candidates scoring equal marks will be decided on the basis of marks obtained by them at P.G. degree examination.
- The faculty-wise /subject-wise merit lists will be displayed on the University website and also on the University notice board.
- The candidates will be given admissions to a Ph.D. degree programme according to their inter-se-merit in the Entrance Test and the availability of seats in the subject concerned. Only a pre-determined number of candidates, as announced in the brochure, shall be admitted to Ph.D. degree programme in a given subject.
- The candidate who qualifies himself/herself at the "Entrance Test" will have to appear for an interview in which the area of his/her research interest will be discussed and he/she will be admitted to Ph.D. programme provisionally subject to fulfilment of other conditions of eligibility and his/her performance in the interview.
- 20% of seats over and above the total number of seats notified by the University in given subjects are allocated to the Foreign/NRI/PIO candidates. Such candidates will have to appear for an interview before the Committee constituted by university authorities. The area of research interests of the candidate will be discussed in the interview. After the candidate's satisfactory performance at interview, he/she will be admitted provisionally to the Ph.D. programme provided he/she fulfills other conditions of eligibility. After the candidate obtains a research visa from a competent authority, he /she will be issued a letter of final registration. His/Her admission will be confirmed after the full payment of annual tuition fees.

B. ALLOCATION OF RESEARCH GUIDE:

The allocation of the research guide for a candidate selected for admission shall be decided by the Registration and Research Committee of the subject concerned. The allocation of research guide will depend upon the availability of guides with the required specialization and the research interest of the candidate as indicated during interview by the candidate etc.

- The allotment of research guide will be done by the concerned Research and Recognition Committee.
- The University may assign a co-guide to student only if it is necessary in view of the nature of research topic. This will be done only at the beginning of research work.
- Change of Guide: In an exceptional situation, change of guide will be permitted on the written request either by the student or the guide. The decision in this regard will be taken by the concerned Research and Recognition Committee.
