Notice for ATKT Rule for BBA/BCA

Dear Students,

Wishing you all a very Happy and Prosperous New Year 2021!

Hope you all are staying safe.

As you all students are aware that to get promoted in Final Year, students are required to clear all subjects of First Year. In case, student fails to clear (internal exam/university exam), then ATKT rule shall be applicable which means she/he will get year backlog till the time First Year does not get cleared on your Marks statement issued by the University.

Owing to the pandemic situation, you are, hereby, informed that you are being provided online classes for BBA/BCA final semester till the time university takes decision on end term examination and result gets declared. Hence, the students will be submitting one undertaking, the format for undertaking will be provided by the institute stating that, If any students could not clear out first year, the student will self withdraw from the respective semester and will re-apply after clearing the First Year Backlog(s) as per ATKT rule of the university.
